

Walk around Hakone

Recommended courses

Hakone is a big area, and it's full of fun things to do! If you're not sure where to go, we recommend the following two courses that feature hints about how to enjoy traveling in Hakone.

* Depending on the season, you may not be able to follow the schedule of these model courses due to traffic jams or other reasons.

Hakone Tabidasuke Model course

- Depart from Atami Station
Around 9:20 a.m.
The Izu Hakone Bus is the only way to get from Atami Station to Hakone without having to transfer. Let's go to Hakone on the route bus!
- Jukkoku-toge entrance
From 10:00 a.m.
(Jukkoku-toge Cable Car)
When riding the Jukkoku-toge Cable Car to the summit of the mountain, you can view sights including Izu, Suruga Bay, and Sagami Bay. If the weather is good you can even see the Tokyo Skytree.
You can ride the Jukkoku-toge Cable Car at no cost using your Hakone Tabidasuke.
- Hakone Sekisho
From 11:20 a.m.
(Hakone Sekisho Exhibition Hall, Hakone Ekiden Museum, lunch)
This is the location of the popular Hakone Ekiden Museum, the Hakone Sekisho Exhibition Hall, and more (separate admission fees apply). For lunch, many people enjoy the Nepalese-style chicken curry at the Hakone Tabimonogatari-kan. Afterwards, you can take a boat to Moto-Hakone Port. You can ride the Lake Ashino Pleasure Cruise (catamaran) at no cost using your Hakone Tabidasuke Pass Hakone Tabidasuke.
- Moto-Hakone Port
From 1:10 p.m.
(Hakone Shrine)
Visit Hakone Shrine, which is approximately 10 minutes by foot from Moto-Hakone Port. Get on the boat again and head to Hakone-en. You can ride the pleasure cruise boat (catamaran) on Lake Ashino at no cost using your Hakone Tabidasuke.
- Hakone-en
From 2:15 p.m.
(Hakone-en Aquarium, Komagatake Ropeway, lunch)
When facing away from Mt. Komagatake, Hakone-en is the vast area on the side of Lake Ashino. There is an aquarium and ropeway.
You can enter the aquarium one time at no cost using your Hakone Tabidasuke. Of course, you can also ride on the Komagatake Railway as many times as you like.
- Arrive at Odawara Station
Around 5:00 p.m.

Make full use of the Hakone tabidasuke

Hakone Unlimited Bus Ride Pass (Model course)

- Depart from Odawara Station
Around 9:10 a.m.
Get on the Izu Hakone Bus and head for Owakudani. (To get to Owakudani, take the bus bound for Hakone-en via Kojiri.)
- Owakudani
Around 10:00 a.m.
Hakone is also known for its volcanoes, the traces of which can be seen in the white steam rising vigorously here and there, as well as the sulfurous smell. People say that eating one of the famous black eggs will extend your life by seven years.
- Hakone-en
Around 11:30 a.m.
(Hakone-en Aquarium, Komagatake Ropeway, lunch)
This is the location of the Hakone-en Aquarium, pleasure boats, and the Komagatake Ropeway. Get on the bus once again and head to Hakone Shrine.
- Moto-Hakone
Around 1:20 p.m.
(Hakone Shrine)
Hakone Shrine is an approximately 10-minute walk from the Moto-Hakone bus stop. It is also home to Kuzuryu Shrine (Shingu).
- Suzuhira Kamaboko
Around 3:10 p.m.
After fully enjoying Hakone, we recommend trying kamaboko (fish cakes), a famous product of Odawara.
- Arrive at Odawara Station
Around 4:30 p.m.
